

'Difficult Issues in the Pastoral Context'

with Rev Andrew Walker

Thursday 5 August 2010
10.00am - 4.00pm

A training day, for all those who are involved in pastoral work: during the day we shall explore the difficulties which arise and the most effective ways of responding to those who are affected by issues such as domestic violence, drugs, pornography, or a marital affair.

Andrew Walker was the founder director of the London Centre for Spirituality and is an experienced Psychosynthesis counsellor and supervisor as well as retreat leader and spiritual director. He is currently parish priest of St Michael in Lewes and is doing a Doctorate in Ministry at Kings College London.

at Kippington Parish Centre, St Mary's Church,
Kippington Road TN13 2LL

There is plenty of parking

The cost for the day is £40.
Sandwich lunch, tea and coffee included in the price.
